

WHO WE ARE

The Tenute La Montina: they rise in the wonderful Franciacorta, which is a territory that unwinds in Lombardy among lakes, verdant vineyards and an ideal microclimate for birth and rise of excellent grapes.

The Tenute contain in their 12.000 square meters of extent the winery "La Montina", the wine shop "Montina", the Villa Baiana, the Baiana congress center, the contemporary art museum "Remo Bianco" and the non-profit association "Dedicato a Te".

La Montina: born in Franciacorta on the 28th of April 1987 from 3 of the 7 Bozza brothers: Vittorio, Giancarlo and Alberto. The area with grapevines, developed on a surface of 72 hectares positioned in 7 districts in Franciacorta, allows the wine company to produce 380.000 bottles per year. La Montina has always been an "open cellar" and organizes daily guided tours for the public.

In 2015 the first official bottle of Franciacorta for Ac Milan was made, and La Montina became the Official sparkling wine of the Rossoneri team.

In 2016, the transformation of vineyards into organic was completed and in 2017, on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the founding of the cellar, Franciacorta "Selezione Montecolo" was created.

Villa Baiana: the adobe dates back to 1620 when it was property of Benedetto Montini. Acquired in 1982 from Bozza brothers Vittorio, Giancarlo and Alberto (that in that way were able to continue the family wine tradition), the elegant structure of Villa Baiana sinks into the harmony of the ancient estate wrapped in a beautiful park. The cooking is delicious and rich and the beautiful location is the perfect frame for high profile happenings, both for celebrating private and business events. The structure is disposed in three levels and it can give hospitality to 600 people. The park is an amazing green space, with ancient trees telling about his story.

High cooking, pastry chefs
and unique locations to live and taste.
Since 2017 Villa Baiana is also Town Hall, for the celebration of civil ceremonies directly in the amazing
exterior and interior environments of the Villa.

Museo Remo Bianco: The “Tenute La Montina” is the only structure in Europe which can boasts the ownership of a proper internal contemporary art museum (which is officially recognized by the Lombardy region). It is mainly named after the artist Remo Bianco (Milan, 1922- 1988), who was famous in the world for his “multi-matter” works which result from the mix of techniques and materials which are heterogeneous each other. The museum cyclically hosts one-man exhibitions of international contemporary artists, whose works are made live in the inimitable route of the museum, which unwinds
among wineries, wine casks, majestic rooms and bottles which lie on yeasts...

Onlus association "Dedicato A te": founded thank to Barbara Bozza (the Villa Baiana director and owner and Giancarlo Bozza's daughter) and her husband Luca Pasini's will and indescribable courage, the association is a life reply to Andrea's death. He was Barbara's second son; he died on the 12th of April 2012 because of a rare form of cancer. "dedicato A te" was founded on the 1st of October as a non-profit association whose objective is to collect funds for research. Barbara, Luca and their eldest son Diego could have chosen closing to the world in their boundless suffering. On the contrary, they decided to transform their biggest tragedy into a love sign for other special children like their Andrea, hoping that in a not distant future the terrible illness that removed Andrea from the world (and vice versa!) will be defeated.
